Executive community report

International/Interfaith week (Michael Baumann)

Celebrate and learn other religions, culture and faith in the second whole week of November. Clubs can collaborate with Student Government to host events through entire Interfaith week. If you are interested in joining International/Interfaith week committee meeting or more information, please contact Student Government.

Interfaith week budget (Luis Marquez)

For the Interfaith week clubs' events, Student Government Treasurer will allocate extra 200 dollars budgets for each club to host the event.

Facility committee meeting (Casey Abenes)

1. Parking lot maintenance: School is going to redo the parking lot so the residential hall parking lot will be unavailable for use on October 22 to 29. Cars that are not moved will be tickets and towed. Please park your cars in the ED building parking lot.
2. Parking tag for students, faculties and visitors: For those who have cars will get the parking tag on campus, but not sure when will the school execute.

Safety committee meeting (Casey Abenes)

1. School is hiring the third custodian for ED building from 1 to 10 pm.
2. School will set up an alert system in all classrooms but not sure when.

Health inspector (Michael Mendoza)

The health inspector came on Wednesday morning. They inspected the cafeteria and dorm area. And there will be a report coming out in public. Student Government will bring it to the general assembly. If you want a copy, please let Student Government know.

Club budget (Luis Marquez)

There will be three tiers of budget, tier 1 is $150 and clubs will not have to provide any event for the school; tier 2 is $250, and clubs have to at least come up with one event; tier 3 is $350, and clubs have to come up with at least two events. And clubs also have to come to Student Government general assembly every week, if clubs miss three general assembly, you will get bumped down to tier 1; if you miss one more general assembly, you will be removed from tier list. Whoever can't make it to Student Government general assembly, please email Student Government Vice President.
